Sub: Regarding the medical reimbursement claim submitted by Sri Hari Prakash Gupta, Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate of this Judgeship for Rs.23,447/-, which has been incurred over the medical treatment of his wife.

Sir,

Sri Hari Prakash Gupta, Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate of this Judgeship has applied for the reimbursement of medical expenses incurred over the treatment of his wife from Kamla Nehru Memorial Hospital, Allahabad. After the technical examination the Chief Medical Officer, Allahabad has verified & countersigned the bills for Rs. 23,447/- (Rupee Twenty three thousand four hundred forty seven) only. I perused the reports of Officer Incharge Medical Reimbursement dated 30.05.2017 and concern clerk dated 29.05.2017, by which Sri Hari Prakash Gupta has not given the information to the Head of the Office regarding the treatment of his wife by the private Doctor/Hospital in the emergency condition in compliance of Rule 11(b) of Medical Attendant (first amendment) Rule 2014. Hence the relaxation by the Principal Secretary (Judicial), Uttar Pradesh Government, Lucknow, in rule 11(b) of Medical Attendant (first amendment) 2014 is required under the provision as contained in G.O. 2275 / 5 -6-11-1082-87, dated 20.09.2011, rule 28(b).

No. 488 W Allahabad: Dated: 21/2/ 2017.
Sub: Regarding the medical reimbursement claim submitted by Sri Hari Prakash Gupta Additional chief Judicial Magistrate of this Judgeship for Rs.37,230/-, which has been incurred over the medical treatment of his son from Kamla Nehru Memorial Hospital, Allahabad.

Sir,

Sri Hari Prakash Gupta Additional chief Judicial Magistrate of this Judgeship has applied for the reimbursement of medical expenses incurred over the treatment of his son from Kamla Nehru Memorial Hospital, Allahabad. for Rs. 55,015/- (Rupees Fifty five thousand and fifteen) only. After the technical examination the Chief Medical Officer, Allahabad has verified & countersigned the bills for Rs. 37,230/- (Rupees Thirty seven thousand two hundred thirty) only. I perused the report of concern clerk dated 20.02.2017, by which Sri Hari Prakash Gupta has not given the information to the Head of the Office regarding his treatment by the private doctor in the emergency condition in compliance of Rule 11(b) of Medical Attendant (first amendment) Rule 2014. Hence the relaxation by the Principal Secretary (Judicial), Uttar Pradesh Government, Lucknow is required under the provision as contained in G.O. 2275 / 5 - 6 - 11 - 1082 - 87, dated 20.09.2011, and Medical Attendant (first amendment) Rule 2014-Rule 11(b).

Therefore, I am sending herewith, all the original bills & vouchers submitted by Sri Hari Prakash Gupta Additional chief Judicial Magistrate of this Judgeship for information and necessary action as per under the provision as contained in G.O. 2275 / 5 - 6 - 11 - 1082 - 87, dated 20.09.2011 and Medical Attendant (first amendment) Rule 2014, Rule- 11(b).

Encl:
original of bills alongwith
verification report of C.M.O
for Rs.37,230/- 38- sheets

Your's faithfully,
