In reply of aforesaid Court letters , District Judge has submitted his comments vide his letter dated 24.2.18 ('B-3') reproduced below in verbatim:-

“In compliance of Hon'ble Court's order as contained in above mentioned letter, it is submitted that I examined the explanation dated 30.11.2017 submitted by the officer concerned for delay in sending property statement.

From the perusal of explanation and statements submitted by the officer concerned it is found that the directions of Circular Letters issued by Hon'ble Court in this regard, from time to time have not been followed by the officer concerned. He has mentioned in his explanation dated 30.11.2017 that “he was a newly appointed officer and after marriage on 7th December 2010 he was trying to make adjustment with his professional and personal life at same time and just because of maintaining the work, life balance there is delay in submitting property statement.”

The reasons for delay in submitting the statements given by the officer concerned seems no such grave, due to which he was unable to submit the property statement within time. A report regarding reasons for delay in sending property statement was again called for from the officer concerned on 16.02.2018 within two days but no report has been submitted by the officer concerned so far."
