Sub: Recognition for offering programmes in Open & Distance Learning (ODL) mode from academic year 2016-17 - regarding.

Sir/Madam,

This is in reference to your proposal submitted for consideration of recognition in response to UGC letter F.No. 12-3/2016 (DEB-III) dated 21.03.2016 and subsequent interface meeting attended by your University/Institutions. In this regard, I am directed to inform that it has been decided to accord recognition to your institution to offer certain programmes through distance mode for two academic years i.e. 2016-17 and 2017-18 subject to strict adherence and compliance of the conditions mentioned in this letter.

2 The university shall scrupulously abide by the following terms and conditions, while offering the programmes through distance learning mode in accordance with the Affidavit dated 7th April, 2016, duly notarised and signed by Prof. K. John Paul, Registrar of the University, submitted to the Commission.

3 The recognition accorded to the institution will be valid only for the programmes/courses as mentioned in the list attached with this letter.

i) The University shall offer only those programmes through Open and Distance Learning (ODL) mode, which are approved by the statutory bodies of the University as per norms and also by UGC and wherever necessary by the apex regulatory bodies in the country.

ii) It is the responsibility of the University to follow the norms prescribed by the concerned regulatory body/ies such as UGC, AICTE, NCTE/any other and also seek its/their prior approval, wherever required.

iii) The University shall not start any new programme without prior approval of UGC and other concerned regulatory authorities in anticipation of recognition.

iv) The nomenclature of all the programmes to be offered under distance mode shall be strictly as per UGC/AICTE Regulations.

[Signature]

v) No teacher education programme shall be offered without prior approval of the NCTE (as per new NCTE regulations, 2014)

Request - 112

vi) The Ministry of HRD's directions prohibiting B.E/ B.Tech through distance mode vide its letter dated 29.07.2009 shall be adhered to strictly.

vii) The programmes in Engineering and Technology e.g. B.E/ B.Tech/ Diploma and courses in Medicines/ Nursing/ Physiotherapy etc. are not allowed and the University will not be offering the same.

viii) The university shall refrain from offering such programmes that are not allowed to be offered, through distance mode by the respective apex body/ies.

ix) No online programme leading to award of Degree/ Certification shall be offered by the University, until a policy is framed and approved by UGC in this regard.

x) The minimum duration of a programme, offered in ODL mode shall not be less than the minimum duration of similar programme offered through the regular mode. Nomenclature of programme and the minimum eligibility criteria for admission should be as per UGC norms and Regulations.

xi) The University shall run its ODL programmes only in those subjects/ fields which are offered by it through regular mode.

xii) The university shall have at least one full time faculty member exclusively for coordinating each programme at the headquarters xiii) The eligibility conditions for admissions to each course to be offered through distance learning mode shall be as per norms of UGC/AICTE and other regulatory bodies.

xiv) The territorial jurisdiction in respect of University for offering programmes through distance mode will be as per the policy of UGC on territorial jurisdiction and opening of off campuses/centres/study centres as mentioned in the UGC notification No.F.27-1/2012(CPP-II), dated 27th June 2013, a copy of which is also posted on the UGC website www.ugc.ac.in/deb.

xv) The programmes in distance mode will not be offered through franchising arrangement and /or through any private institution /college xvi) The Institution will have necessary infrastructure at its HQ as well as its Study Centres (if any) for conduction of practical work, wherever required.

4. Moreover, the University shall not offer any M.Phil/Ph.D Programme through distance learning mode in compliance to clause 5 of the UGC (Minimum Standard and Procedure for awards of M.Phil./Ph.D Degree), Regulation 2009.

5. The Institution's management of the distance education programmes will be open for review and inspection by the UGC. The academic norms of the programmes shall be under monitoring by the concerned regulatory authorities.

6. It may also be noted that:

- i. If the institution fails to comply with the conditions of recognition for which the Affidavit, as mentioned above has been submitted or if it is found conducting affairs in a manner that leads to deterioration of academic standards, the UGC may withdraw its recognition at any stage. The University will be solely responsible for the same.
- ii. The recognition can be reviewed depending on change of policy with reference to ODL Regulations or otherwise.
- iii. In case any information, documentary evidence submitted/produced by the University/institution is found to be false or fake at a later stage, the recognition of University/institution shall be withdrawn and the University/Institution concerned shall be solely responsible for the all consequences arising out of the same.

VICE - CHANCELLOR

Dear Learners,

The Centre for Distance Education (CDE) of our University has already made a mark among employees, housewives, middle class students, defence personnel and others with manifold courses at UG, PG, Professional and Research level, by offering quality education at an affordable cost through a wide network of study centres. Our CDE offers different courses enabling the knowledge seeker to choose the course of his / her academic interest. All the enthusiastic learners are welcome to make use of the courses offered by CDE and to improve their qualifications, knowledge and career prospects.

Prof. A. Rajendra Prasad
Vice-Chancellor, Acharya Nagarjuna University

Message from DIRECTOR, CDE

Dear Students,

The Centre for Distance Education welcomes all learners to join the fraternity of distance education. It's a matter of pride to mention that Admissions are made twice a year through Calendar year batch (January to December) and Academic Year batch (July to June) and Examinations are also held twice a year i.e., in the month of December and May. The University also provides the facilities for supplementary examinations and betterment examinations to improve the marks obtained by the students of Distance Education.

Those who need any clarification may approach directly the Director or CDE. The Centre will clarify the doubts of the students at every stage and it will extend all possible co-operation and guidance to the students in all academic matters.

Prof. P. Sankara Pitchaiah
Director, Centre for Distance Education, ANU

1. ACHARYA NAGARJUNA UNIVERSITY – A BRIEF PROFILE

Acharya Nagarjuna University, named after the great Buddhist philosopher Acharya Nagarjuna, was established in 1976 and is located between Vijayawada and Guntur on Kolkata - Chennai National Highway (NH 5). The university was inaugurated on 11th September, 1976 by the former President of India, Sri Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed and celebrated its Silver Jubilee in 2001. The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) awarded "A"-grade to Acharya Nagarjuna University.

The University was originally started as a Post Graduate Centre of Andhra University in 1967 and later grown into a full-fledged Centre of higher learning in 1976, as the Nagarjuna University, fulfilling the aspirations of the people of the area. Since then it has achieved tremendous progress through quantitative expansion and qualitative improvements on various academic fronts. This was made possible by the relentless efforts of successive Vice-Chancellors starting from Professor V. Balaiiah to the present dynamic Vice-Chancellor Professor A. Rajendra Prasad and a large pool of dedicated faculty, an efficient team of supporting staff and high quality student input. It has a spacious campus, spread over 293 acres.

The University caters to the educational needs of Guntur and Prakasam districts with a network of over 356 affiliated colleges. The University and its affiliated colleges offer a wide variety of courses including Engineering, Education, Law, Pharmacy, Science, Commerce, Management and Arts. The University College offers 36 courses leading to M.A., M.Sc., M.Com., M.H.R.M., LL.M., M.B.A., M.C.A., M.Tech. and P.G.D.C.A. and also provides facilities for research leading to M.Phil., and Ph.D. The University runs 24 academic departments and 7 advanced research centres. It has one PG center at Ongole.

Basic facilities such as central library, internet facility, well equipped laboratories, instrumentation centre, hostels, guest house, bank, post office, telecom centre, health centre, staff quarters, transport facilities for the staff, canteen, play ground, gymnasium with latest equipment, indoor stadium, student centre, and recreation facilities are available.

2. ABOUT THE CENTRE FOR DISTANCE EDUCATION (CDE)

Higher Education in recent years, has undergone significant paradigm shift including the shift from 'teacher-centred' to a 'learner-centred' learning and the replacement of the traditional method of 'learning over a specified period of time' by the concept of informal and continuous 'lifelong learning'. Keeping pace with the changing scenario, Acharya Nagarjuna University has started the Centre for Distance Education (CDE) to offer B.A., BBA, B.Sc. (MPC, BZC, MSCs, MPCs, MECs, MPE, Costume Design & Fashion Technology, Information Technology), Bachelor of Hotel Management (B.H.M.), B.Com (General), B.Com (Computer Applications), B.L.I.Sc. courses at the Bachelors Degree level and MA (English), MA (Telugu), MA (Hindi), MA (History), MA (Economics), MA (Political Science), MA (Sociology), MSW, MA (Journalism and Mass Communication) MHRM, M.Com., MBA, MCA, M.Sc (Mathematics), M.Sc. METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

Course material on all the theory papers will be supplied by the CDE after completion of the admission process. The course material divided into generally 16 lessons on each paper, provides a general idea about the scope of the paper and a summary of the content of the subject. The candidates are not expected to depend only on the course material for the examination. The course material provides also the relevant reference material which the student is supposed to study in detail. Similarly, the course material may also provide a list of important cases (with citations) on relevant topics and the student is expected to study the judgments of those cases from Law Reports.

Study Centre for PCP Programmes

Week end classes will be held at selected study centres, subject to the minimum enrollment prescribed. Refer ANNEXURE - I for list of study centres.

EXAMINATIONS

Pattern of Examination : The pattern of examination of LL.M Programme shall be as follows:

- a) Year-end examination: The year end examination shall be for 70 marks in each paper i.e. six theory papers at the end of first year and two theory papers at the end of second year.
- b) Dissertation (final year): The candidate has to submit a dissertation on a topic related to his specialization at the end of the final year. It will be valued for 200 marks.

The purpose of the dissertation is to provide an experience to the student to apply his knowledge of research methodology on a topic of his/her choice related to the specialization. The student has to select a guide and select the topic with the assistance of the guide. Any lecturer in a Law College, with an LL.M degree, is eligible to guide the candidate. The dissertation should consist a comprehensive study of any topic. It is advisable that the student also undertakes an empirical study in addition to the theoretical analysis of the topic. The dissertation may consist of about 150 typed pages. The student should submit the dissertation proposal in the following format at the end of the first year examination.
