Hon'ble Mr. Justice B.K.Roy

Pursuant to query dated 3.5.2000/made by your Lordship, the officer has replied in his letter, placed below at Flag'D that at the time of transfer of Car, he was a newly appointed officer in Judicial service and as such, he under a bonafide belief that the transfer of Car from his wife to himself will not attract any gift tax. He further submitted that donar i.e. his wife does not file any income tax return and hence, she also could not show it in the income tax return. Therefore, he has sought pardon for this inadvertent mistake and has sought permission to sell the said Car.

Submitted.
