Hon'ble Committee for HJS Recruitment 2000

Sri Narendra Prasad Singh, Sri Subhash and Sri Angad Prasad presently working as Civil Judge (Junior Division) (PCS J) have applied for permission to appear for interview before Hon'ble HJS Committee. As per the record available, it is pertinent to mention here that once the above mentioned three candidates appeared for the examination of HJS-2000, they were not working as Civil Judge (Junior Division). Later on, they were selected for HJS Examination and were called for the interview hence they had sought permission of Hon'ble Court to appear for interview before Hon'ble HJS Committee. The respective files of the above mentioned three candidates were sent to the Hon'ble Administrative Judges for permission. As per High Court Rules, the matter for consideration of Hon'ble Inspecting Judges/Administrative Judges, this permission for appearing before the interview is nowhere mentioned but vide Hon'ble The Chief Justice's order dated 21-8-94 permission regarding joining classes, examinership, writing books, talks on radio and television, to deliver lecture etc. was given to Hon'ble Administrative Judges for permission. The office has reported that as per the record available, after the order dated 21-8-94 no other order on the subject matter has been issued by Hon'ble Court. It is further mentioned here that regarding permission to appear for the interview, the file was put up before Hon'ble Administrative Judges for the permission because previously such files were put up before Hon'ble Administrative Judges. Under the High Court Rules in the heading "Matters of the Full Court (10) it is mentioned that matters which the Chief Justice or the Administrative Committee or any five Judges may consider fit to be placed before the Full Court.

The matter referred above is submitted for your Lordship's kind perusal and necessary orders.
