Dear Sir

I am desired to refer to this Court's D.O. Letter No. A-173/2011 dated 02.06.2011 regarding property statements of Sri Ishtiyaq Ali, the then Addl. Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow now posted at your Judgeship for the financial years 2004-05, 2005-06, 2006-07, 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2009-10 has yet not been received at this Court.

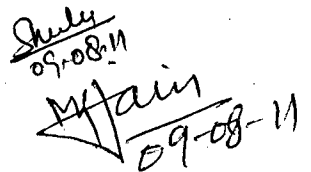

I am, therefore, to request you to kindly send the required information in the matter to this Court immediately so that the same may be placed before Hon'ble Administrative Judge, Lucknow at the earliest.

With regards.

Yours sincerely,

Dated : June 02, 2011

Dear Sir,

By speed post

I am desired to say that on the property statement of Sri Ishtiyag Ali, the then Addl. Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow now posted in Agra Judgeship for the financial years 2004-05, 2005-06, 2006-07, 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2009-10 Hon'ble the Administrative Judge, Lucknow has been pleased to pass the following order on 11.05.2011:-

".....C.L. No. 16/IV-h-16/Admin(A) dated 13th May 2004 (in continuation of Court's Circular letter No. 63/IV-h/16/Admin A Dated 10.12.1998) relates to submission of statements of movable and immovable property to be submitted by all the Judicial Officers. The Circular letter provides, "the Judicial Officers be now required to submit property statement at the time of entering the service and there after at the interval of two financial years i.e. in every third financial year."

The Circular letter further imperatively requires all Judicial Officers posted in judgeships to ensure strict compliance of the above Circular Letter of the Hon'ble Court in the matter. Submission of property statement is not a mere farce formality but is a predominant requirement of Government Servants Conduct Rules.

It is noticed that the Officer has not adhered to the time scheme as well as the proforma provided for submission of property statement in the Circular Letter and has submitted property statement for six financial years in a very casual manner.

Let him explain the delay in filing the statement. He shall submit property statements afresh strictly in accordance with the proforma appended to the Circular Letter referred to above.

Office shall forthwith place the property statements of the officer after receipt of his explanation."

I am, therefore, to request you kindly to direct the above- named officer to submit his explanation as directed by Hon'ble the Administrative Judge, Lucknow and send the same to this Court immediately so that the same may be placed before Hon'ble the Administrative Judge, Lucknow at the earliest.

With regards.

Yours sincerely,

(HARSH KUMAR)

'CONFIDENTIAL'

D. O. No. : A/97 /2011 'Conf.'

Dated : May 16 ,2011

Dear Sir,

By Spl. Messenger

With reference to your endorsement no. 1995/XV-PF dated 23.09.2010 forwarding therewith an application dated 09.09.2010 of Sri Ishtiyaq Ali, Addl. Chief Judicial Magistrate, in your Judgeship regarding submission of property statement for the financial years 2004-05, 2005-06, 2006-2007, 2007-2008, 2008-2009 and 2009-2010, I am desired to say that after perusal of the same, Hon'ble the Administrative Judge, Lucknow has been pleased to pass the following order on 11.05.2011:-

".....C.L. No. 16/IV-h-16/Admin(A) dated 13th May 2004 (in continuation of Court's Circular letter No. 63/IV-h/16/Admin A Dated 10.12.1998) relates to submission of statements of movable and immovable property to be submitted by all the Judicial Officers. The Circular letter provides, "the Judicial Officers be now required to submit property statement at the time of entering the service and there after at the interval of two financial years i.e. in every third financial year."

The Circular letter further imperatively requires all Judicial Officers posted in judgeships to ensure strict compliance of the above Circular Letter of the Hon'ble Court in the matter. Submission of property statement is not a mere farce formality but is a predominant requirement of Government Servants Conduct Rules.

It is noticed that the Officer has not adhered to the time scheme as well as the proforma provided for submission of property statement in the Circular Letter and has submitted property statement for six financial years in a very casual manner.

Let him explain the delay in filing the statement. He shall submit property statements afresh strictly in accordance with the proforma appended to the Circular Letter referred to above.

Office shall forthwith place the property statements of the officer after receipt of his explanation."

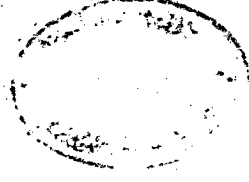

I am, therefore, to request you to kindly direct the above- named officer to submit his explanation as directed by Hon'ble the Administrative Judge, Lucknow to this Court so that the same may be placed before Hon'ble the Administrative Judge, Lucknow at the earliest.

With regards.

Yours sincerely,

(HARSH KUMAR)

Sri Shiva Nand Mishra, HJS
District Judge,
Lucknow.
