Subject: Representation regarding adverse remarks in column 01(m) and column 4 of ACR for the year 2021-22 given by the respected District Judge Hamirpur.

Respected Sir,

In reference to the subject mentioned above, it is most humbly submitted as under:-

1. That I have never defied any advice or administrative decision of respected District Judge. The remark mentioned in column 01(m) is of general nature.
2. That being In-charge Inspection and Statement since April 2021 I got prepared all the statements attentively and checked thoroughly before signing them whenever it were placed before me by Sadar Munsarim. The remark mentioned in column 4 is of general nature.

Specific Submission-

3. That I joined judicial services in the year 2009 and since then I have been assessed as Good, Very Good and Out Standing by respected District Judge.
4. That I have been very dedicated and devoted to Judicial Service and it is remarkable to mention here that I never received any kind of advisory or DO in my whole service which could challenge my sincerity of devotion towards my work and behavior.
5. That I have complied with every order of respected District Judge Hamirpur. The remark in this regard given by respected District Judge is of general nature which does not reveal any particular instance in which I had objected or defied the advice or administrative order of respected District Judge. It is more to add that respected District Judge had neither issued me any DO or any advisory regarding above remarks nor I have been communicated in any manner which could have impressed the defiance committed by me in any way.

6. That all the statements got prepared attentively and checked thoroughly by me being In-charge Inspection and Statement. The remark in this regard given by respected District Judge is of general nature which does not reveal any particular instance in which I had made any mistake. All statements were verified in order to maintain their correctness. No error or mistake was ever pointed by respected District Judge in any statements. No DO or any advisory had ever been issued to me for correction of statements nor any specific statement has been mentioned in the remark which can be made yardstick to justify the remarks.

7. That due to the reasons above the remarks mentioned in column 01(m) and column 4 and over all assessment on merit as "Poor" given by respected District Judge deserve expunction.

It is therefore, most humbly requested to place my representation before the Hon'ble Court for its kind any sympathetic consideration. I shall be highly grateful to the Hon'ble Court for its kindness.

With regards!

Your's Faithfully,

(Smt. Suneeta Sharma),
