He discarded substantial evidences without pointing out any demerits in the evidence and used opinion evidences as substantial evidence while passing the judgment. In large numbers of Judgments as I have gone through, I found that the officer even did not mention the evidence in his Judgment. The officer wrote judgment on his personal knowledge and personal experience and discarded the substantial evidence on record on the basis of his own assumption and presumption. Analysis report of the Order passed by the officer alongwith 5 other judgments (Annexure) passed by the officer are enclosed herewith for kind perusal.
