

Declaration.

With reference to the booking / allotment of the flat in the Awadh Vihar Yojana of the U.P Govt Awas Vikas Parishad in favour of Smt. Neelu Mainwal, a Judicial Officer [Sr. Division] posted at present in Distt. Gautam Budh Nagar, UP, I am to state that Smt. Neelu Mainwal is my daughter in law. She is wedded to my son Sri Ajay Kumar Singh who is also PCS [Education] rank officer, posted in the Basic Education Deptt. Lucknow.

When the advertisement of the housing scheme under question was published in the News Papers probably in month of February 2013, She had discussed this issue with me. As the scheme was good, I happily consented to go ahead. As she was having no sufficient amount to make the booking, I gave the booking amount of Rs 2.50 lac [Rupees Two Lac and Fifty thousand only] through SBI Bank Cheque No.658686 dated 8 - 3 - 2013.

While making this amount available to Smt. Neelu Mainwal, it was verbally made clear to her that this amount would be treated as loan without any interest. In case, she got a flat allotted , cost paid and registry of the flat executed in her name, then she would refund my loan amount conveniently as early as possible.

As it is clear from the above, I had given my consent to Smt. Neelu Mainwal before She made a booking for a flat. Secondly the amount of Rs 2.50 lac that I had given to her was as a loan without interest, refundable after the registry of the flat was executed in her name.
