If this isn't your first degree and you're applying to study a course at an equivalent or lower level to an award you currently hold, you may be charged a higher fee than the published rate. Further information on this is available at <https://www.gre.ac.uk/>.

The contract between you and the University

Please read the Terms and Conditions (<https://www.gre.ac.uk/about->) which apply to the information contained in our prospectus (<https://www.gre.ac.uk/>). By accepting the offer of a place with us, you'll be accepting these terms and conditions and they'll form part of the contract between you and the University if you register as a student.

If you accept our offer, you'll be asked to agree to the University's Principal Conditions of Registration when you register as a student. These are also part of the contract between you and the University. The Principal Conditions of Registration for the current year are available at <https://docs.gre.ac.uk/rep/>

You'll have the right to cancel the contract between you and the University within 14 days of registering as a student, as explained in the Principal Conditions of Registration (<https://docs.gre.ac.uk/rep/>). See Withdrawal and Interruption of Studies for the process and relevant forms.

By registering as a student, you'll also agree to accept the University's Student Regulations, Policies and Procedures. The current year's versions are available at <https://www.gre.ac.uk/>.

Students under 18 years at the time of registration

If you'll be under 18 years of age at the time of registration, the university will undertake certain arrangements to fulfil our duty of care, as detailed in the Under 18s Policy (<https://www.gre.ac.uk/>). It's a condition of registration that your parent or guardian confirms, via return of the Parents/Guardians Consent Form, their acceptance of these arrangements. The form is available to download at <https://www.gre.ac.uk/>.

If this isn't the offer you're expecting

Please note this may be an alternative offer to the course you applied for. If this is the case, we realise it may not be the news you were expecting, but after reviewing your application we feel you're more suited to study this course with us. The details above are for your new course, please read them carefully to check when and where you'll be studying. To find out more, view the course information available on our website (<https://www.gre.ac.uk/>).

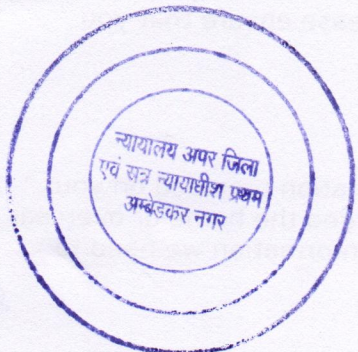

If you need assistance

If you have any difficulty accepting your offer or have any further questions, get in touch with us and we'll do our best to help. Contact us by email: aoc@gre.ac.uk or call 020 8331 9000.

Yours sincerely,

Kelvin Fawdrey
