Subject:- Regarding providing/submission of information and document in compliance of objection raised.

Respected Sir,

With due respect, in compliance of objection raised in reference to purchase of car, I am hereby providing/submitting information and documents required as follows:-

1. That there is no credit of Rs. 3,00,000/- to my Account no. 36424280467 on 20 & 27 January, 2020.

1.1. That is the amount of Rs. 8,00,000/- only has been credited to my account, no. 36424280467 by my father by cheque bearing no. 197451 on 20 January, 2020 as a gift for purchasing the car.

1.2. That is while transferring the amount to MALWA MOTORS, I have mistakenly transferred the amount of Rs. 5,00,000/- to my uncle Mr. Sanket Kumar bearing A/C no. 11208754837, reference no. ITY3449256, which he immediately has returned to my account by cheque bearing no. 788188, on the same day dated 27 January, 2020. In this context the declaration letter of my uncle is annexed with the application. (Annexure- 01)

1.3. That the amount of Rs. 8,00,000/- was transferred to the A/C no. 35365445651 of MALWA MOTORS in three installments i.e. Rs. 3,00,000/- through online transfer, reference no. ITY3449538, Rs. 2,00,000/- by cheque no. 911089, Rs. 3,00,000/- by cheque no. 911088. The transaction details are annexed with the application. (Annexure-02)

2. That the amount of Rs. 8,00,000/- has been paid by my father by cheque bearing no. 197451 on 20 January, 2020 through my account as a gift and remaining amount of Rs. 65,000/- has been paid by my father in cash to the MALWA MOTORS directly towards the booking of car. The consent letter of my father is enclosed herewith in annexure no.03

3. That is being a newly appointed officer, I was less familiar with the norms regarding obtaining prior permission of the Hon'ble High Court for obtaining money as a gift from my father. I assure the Hon'ble High Court that this kind of mistake shall not be repeated by me in future.
