

To,
Respected Registrar General
Hon'ble High Court Judicature

Subject- Consent letter as mother to have given Rs. Two Lakhs for purchasing a new car.

Respected Sir,

I am writing this letter to provide my consent as the mother of Pragati, Addl. Civil Judge, J.D. to acknowledge that I have given Rs. 2,00,000/- (Rs. Two Lacs) for the purchase of a new car.

I fully understand that the money I have given, used for the sole purpose of purchasing a new car, and I agreed to provide this financial assistance to my daughter (Pragati) willingly and without any pressure or coercion. Considering my age, health conditions and owing to the conditions created by covid 19, since I myself could go to the bank to transfer money, I asked my son Prakhar and brother of Pragati to transfer the said amount through his account through internet banking. The amount of Rs 1,30,000/ was transferred through the account of Prakhar bearing account no- 098601540791 (ICICI) IFSC – ICIC0000986 and rs 70,000 were given in cash.

I also acknowledge that I am providing this amount as a gift and that I do not have any expectation of repayment from my daughter (Pragati) or any other party.

In conclusion, I give my full consent to my daughter to use the funds provided by me for the purchase of a new car.

Sincerely,

Mamta Singh
