Declaration for permission of publication of Book "International Criminal Law: Texts and Materials; Substantive and Procedural Law. Globalisation of Rule of Law and search for common rules for Legal Justice and Indian Jurisprudence" as required by O.M./G.O. No. O-3143/II-B-1968 dated 11.12.1968 issued for compliance of Rule 15 of the Uttar Pradesh Government Servants Conduct Rules, 1956

I Nagma Khan, author of the book "International Criminal Law: Texts and Materials; Substantive and Procedural Law. Globalisation of Rule of Law and search for common rules for Legal Justice and Indian Jurisprudence" do hereby declare that I have complied and when and where required shall comply with the following instructions contained in the G.O. quoted above:

- 1)The book does not bear the imprimatur of Government.
- 2)The author's name appears on the first page of the book without her official designation. There may however be no objection to the official designation to be given on the dust cover where the author is introduced to the public.
- 3)The author gives a statement under her name on the first page of the book or at any other suitable place that the author's views and comments in the book are entirely the responsibility of the author and Government are in no way concerned with the publication of the book.
- 3)(a)The book is purely an academic and intellectual legal work and the same is not intended to harm anyone in his or her reputation or otherwise.
- 4)The author should also ensure that the book does not contain any statement of fact or opinion which has any adverse criticism of any current or recent policy or action of the State Government or Central Government or Government of any State or local authority.
- 5)Government servants can be permitted to accept royalty both in lumpsum or on a continuing basis on the sale proceeds of the book written by them provided that if:
 - a) (i) the book is written solely with the aid of the knowledge acquired in the course of service;
 - or
 - (ii)the book is a mere compilation of Government rules, regulations or procedures;

The author should be required, unless the Governor, by the special order, otherwise directs to credit to the general revenues one-third of the income if it is in excess of rupees 250.00 or if the income is a recurring one, it is in excess of rupees 250.00 per annum

b) (i) the book is written with the aid of knowledge acquired by the Government servant in the course of her service, but is not a mere compilation of Government rules, regulations or procedure, but reveals the author's scholarly study of the subject, or (ii)the work neither has nor is likely to have any connection with the author's official position. No part of the income recurring or non recurring derived by her from the sale proceeds or royalties of the book need be credited to the general revenues.
