

From,

Peeyush Tripathi
Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate
Lucknow (U. P.)

To,

Vice chancellor,
The Global Open University,
Okha, Nagaland

Respected Sir,

This is to bring to your kind notice that I have completed my LL.M course from The Global Open University in Year 2012. I appeared in the examination from Delhi center of university. I was awarded LL.M degree in the year of 2013. Thereafter I joined Uttar Pradesh Judicial Services and applied for three additional increments allowed by Hon'ble Allahabad High Court for officers having LL.M course degree. On my application, objection has been raised and clarification has been sought by Hon'ble High Court as to why the date of issuance printed on marksheet of first and second year is same that is 31.08.2012 and the date of examination printed on marksheet of first and second year is also same that is June 2012. Only after the objections has been raised by Hon'ble High Court, the above discrepancy came to my conscious notice for the first time.

It is most respectfully submitted that, I have given examination of First and Second year at different times but my both marksheets mention same month of examination that is June 2012. In same manner my both Marksheets mention same date of issuance that is 31.08.2012. It seems to me that it is due to typographical mistake.

Sir it is most humbly requested that kindly issue rectified/Corrected marksheet showing Correct month of examination and Correct date of issuance of both First and Second year marksheet and also provide full details about my LL.M course, so that it can be placed before Hon'ble High Court.

I Shall be highly grateful.

You're sincerely

Peeyush Tripathi
