Overview

Sharda University's doctoral law programmes aim to create a research community of intellectuals whose work is supervised and guided by the best international standards in the field. The doctoral programmes encompass a wide range of methodological, theoretical, and doctrinal approaches in law and the criminal justice system. The programme's strength converges in several areas, including discrimination law, legal education, business law, and productive interdisciplinary collaborations such as criminal justice and human rights.

What's New

Certain norms and procedures are strictly adhered to while assigning the research supervisors to the candidates admitted in the doctoral law programmes. Any violation of these norms or practices shall result in the University taking serious steps like disqualification of a students' candidature.
