Subject: Permission to pursue LL.M. degree through correspondence while continuing judicial work.

Sir,

I Gyanendra Tripathi, working as Addl. District & Sessions Judge, Bareilly most humbly submits that I am willing to pursue Master of Law(LL.M.) degree from Global Open University, Nagaland in the academic session 2023-2024 through correspondence admission for the academic session 2023-2024 is open with late fee charges. Ist year exam is likely to be conducted in december 2024.

It is further submitted that present LL.M. course is correspondence course therefore I shall not be required to take any study leave and attend classes. Present course is correspondence course hence I may be able to complete my studies after the Court hours in spare time.

Global Open University, Nagaland is a UGC recognized university and the present course is UGC approved for the academic session 2023-2024, also approved by Distance Education Council (D.E.C.).

Further more to be submitted that I have been serving in the judiciary for 15 years and have always been passionate of enhancing my legal Knowledge, persuing LL.M. degree will help me grow professionally and also enable me to contribute more effectively in justice dispensation.

I assure that my studies will not affect my judicial duties in any manner. I shall manage my time efficiently so that my judicial duties do not get compromised.

Therefore you are requested with utmost respect to kindly grant me permission to pursue my academic endeavour.

With respect and regards.

Your Sincerely

30/08/2024
