3.8 UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, JUSTICE & GOVERNANCE (USOLJG)

University School of Law, Justice and Governance, being integral part of Gautam Buddha University, has been operational since 2011 with its core objective to promote teaching, learning, research and innovation in the fields of law and governance. In pursuit of its objective, the School is running four programmes: Integrated five year B.A. LL.B. at graduation level; LL.M.(One Year) and LL.M.(Two Year for working professionals) at Post Graduation level and Ph.D. in the diverse fields of Law. The ongoing B.A. LL.B programme of the School attempts to strike a balance between the compulsory subjects prescribed by the Bar Council of India (BCI) along with the subjects enhancing the employability skills and also increases their prospects in legal field.

Moreover, the School aims to set a balance between the theoretical knowledge with practical learning and development of skills and professional attitude through clinical legal education. The students are guided to participate in moot-court practice, Legal aid, debate, essay writing and project work to instill in them the confidence to take up the challenges of their future career more prolifically and proficiently. The Post Graduate LL.M. (Two Year) programme, which started in 2017, is directed towards more advanced legal studies by following directives of the University Grant Commission (UGC) and necessity of promoting high standard disciplinary knowledge among students.

Considering the demand of the students and to stop best legal minds to go abroad for pursuing similar programme, the department has started one year LL.M programme in 2019. Along with same the School has started LL.M. (Two Year) weekend programme for working professional in the year of 2023.

Without research and innovation no centre of learning can attain excellence and therefore, the School envisages endorsing high quality research in the multi disciplinary fields of law. The Ph.D. programme of the School vigorously takes up this noble objective. The School currently employs highly motivated and dedicated full-time academicians, who have doctoral degrees in various fields of Law, Social Sciences and Humanities from different nationally and internationally reputed universities/institutions.

The Computer Lab: A computer lab at the School has been set up to have an access to the online journals (155), including AIR, SCC online web edition Platinum Plus with Heinonline etc.

Moot-Court: The School has moot-court facility to provide a practical experience to the students.

School Library: The School under BCI guidelines has set up its own library with access to online and offline (hard- bound) study materials.

The Legal Aid Centre: The School under BCI mandate has set up the Legal Aid Centre to provide free legal aid to the marginalized section of the society in collaboration with District Legal Service Authority.
