challenges when it comes to provide adequate care of our beloved family, especially in taking care of our 04 year 03 months old daughter.

2. That my husband is in transferable job of government institute.
3. That these circumstances, I humbly request your kind consideration in transferring me to my husband new place of posting. By being transferred at my husband's posting station. I will be able to fulfill my matrimonial obligation as well as family responsibilities towards them more effectively. This transfer would not only alleviate the challenges we currently face but also allow me to provide the care and support that loved ones truly deserve.
