BEFORE THE HON'BLE HIGH COURT, ALLAHABAD.

Affidavit of Naresh Kumar Diwakar, age 38 years, son of Sri Ramesh Chandra Diwakar, presently posted as Addl. Chief Judicial Magistrate, Mahroni Dist Lalitpur.
.....Deponent

I, the deponent abovenamed solemnly affirm and state on oath as under:-

- That presently I am posted in Lalitpur while my spouse, Smt. Suman Kanaujia, posted as Deputy Superintendent of Police in Mathura district. The geographical distance between our respective posting stations exceeds a significant 400 kilometers. Regrettably, this geographical separation poses considerable challenges when it comes to provide adequate care for our beloved family, especially in taking care of our two young children (son aged 2 year , daughter aged 04 years 11 months). )
- That demanding nature of my spouse's 24 X 7 job often necessitates her to work night shifts, leaving our children unattended during those hours. This situation weighs heavily on our hearts as we strive to ensure their well-being and safety at all times. Furthermore, I am also responsible for the care and attention of my elderly parents, who require regular medical and assistance.

3. That my wife is in transferable job of government institute.

4. That these circumstances, I humbly request your kind consideration in transferring me to Mathura. By being transferred at my wife's posting station Mathura, I will be able to fulfill my matrimonial obligation as well as family responsibilities towards them more effectively. This transfer would not only alleviate the challenges we currently face but also allow me to provide the care and support that my loved ones truly deserve.
